

Aisha Scott

Founder/Chief Leadership Executive - Time To Impact 365 (www.timetoimpact365.com)

Founder/Chief Executive Officer - The Real Boss Ladies of HR (www.TheRealBossLadiesofHR.com)

Aisha Scott has over 20 years of professional experience and leadership expertise within the financial services, commercial real estate, and multi-family management industries. She is also the Founder & Chief Leadership Executive of Time to Impact 365 and Founder & CEO of The Real Boss Ladies of HR. Aisha is a certified DEI professional, Training Instructor, ICF Life Coach, MBTI practitioner and HR professional whom holds a Masters of Science degree in Psychology focused in Industrial/Organizational Development. She is an Executive Leadership Coach with Towson University's Dr. Nancy Gramick Leadership Institute and an adjunct faculty lecturer at the Community College of Baltimore County where she focuses on continuing education programs related to HR, DEI, Business Management, & Leadership for government officials. Her passion for developing corporate professionals and her engaging facilitation style have placed her in front of organizations such as Georgetown University, Bank of America, the US Army Core of Engineers, the MD Police & Correctional Commission, the McCormick Company, and the Golden Key International Honor Society. She is also a member of the American Business Women's Association, the International Coaching Federation, and a former Board Member of the Chesapeake Human Resources Association leading the Workforce Readiness committee.

There is no magic wand to leadership...it's all about perspective.

-Aisha Scott

Bio Profile Date: November 2023